

Election Tempo A Bit Slow

The town's election campaign is off to a slow start on this first full week of the new year but is expected to pick up tempo, particularly in the races for school committee as the days progress toward the Jan. 27 filing deadline.

As of Wednesday there were only single candidates for the vacancies on the board of selectmen and full term on the school committee, with Kenneth G. Barnhill of Wolcott Avenue having obtained nomination papers for the three year term on the board of selectmen and Gary C. Townsend, 11 Crescent Drive, taking out papers for the three year term on the school committee.

Town Clerk Elden R. Salter notes that there will be two separate races for school committee on the ballot in March.

One will be for the three year term being vacated by William L. Lane, who will not seek re-election. The other race will be for a one year term to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of John G. Wragg.

As for the selectman race, there is a single seat open this year. Selectman Alan F. French has announced that he will not seek re-election to another three year term.

Other items on the March 3 ballot will be the one year term for moderator, the question of allowing beano in Andover and also contemplated is a referendum item on the town's central business district.

Candidates must file with the town clerk by 5 p.m., Jan. 27, nomination papers containing the signatures of 99 registered voters, in order to be on the ballot.

Raytheon Traffic Studied

Further consideration of altering traffic regulations for the Raytheon plant in West Andover will take place Monday night at a special meeting of the board of selectmen.

It has been recommended that a ban on westbound traffic entering the Lowell Street gate be lifted, due to problems resulting from a backup of traffic on Route 93 at peak hours.

The selectmen considered the matter this past week, and decided to table any decision.

Among the problems resulting from the ban on left turns into the plant off Lowell

Bicentennial Committee Meets Tonight

Norma Gammon, newly appointed chairman of the Andover Bicentennial Committee, invites all who are interested in serving on the committee to an initial planning meeting to be held in Memorial Hall library tonight at 7:30 p.m. in the print room.

School Board Drops Its Own Account By $5,600

By Linda S. Corbett

The Andover School Committee lopped $5,600 from its own expenses -- including funds for the "Our Schools" publication and $600 for out-of-town travel -- as it began budget deliberations Tuesday night.

Round two on the budget will begin at 7:30 p.m. Monday night in the West Elementary School Auditorium, with administration, maintenance, plant operation and pupil transportation expenses expected to be on the agenda for paring.

Chairman Francis Griggs led off Tuesday's session by calling for a "frugal" budget. The committee had earlier set a $2,091,329 ceiling on '75-'76 expenses, and $7,438,000 on salaries, or a tax rate of $33 for the schools. This year's expenses are set at $8,198,200, for a tax rate of $30.20.

Tuesday Griggs said that particularly with the state of the economy this year, "we don't want to burden taxpayers unnecessarily, while still providing quality education for their children."

He said there would be no increases in the teaching or support staffs, and that new needs would be met through reallocation of funds, not additional ones.

He said he hoped to end up "significantly below" $33 on the tax rate.

Superintendent Kenneth R. Seifert added that he wanted to look at the expense budget in "totality," without getting to the "paper clip stage."

"For us to tell you what's going to take place in 1975 is almost impossible," he went on, "particularly because of Chapter 766 and programmatic changes."

Griggs added that he hoped the committee would be agreeable to reallocating funds later on should needs change, but Committeeman George Olesen disagreed.

"Good management takes a hard line," Olesen said. "We owe it to the townspeople to make some hard decisions and stick by them."

Seifert also said he considered next year's a "maintenance budget."

"We are not advocating any new programs," he said, adding that they might, however, try to beef up some old ones.

School committee expense requests totalled $25,670. The largest increase, $6,000 in "miscellaneous expenses," was due, Seifert said, to policy changes the committee made last year which had not been budgeted for.

Those policy changes amounted to personnel changes, and the committee spent $2,786 in six months of 1974 for moving expenses for Dr. Harry Westcott, adver-

Selectmen To Determine Finance Agency Status

Did an Andover town meeting actually approve the creation of an Industrial Development Financing Authority?

That is the question the selectmen are attempting to determine this week in response to a specific request for funding and also in response to the town's industrial development commission who would like to have such a tool in carrying out its work.

A town meeting at one time did approve creation of an authority through which municipalities may provide financing for industrial expansion and construction. But there is a question as to whether that article contained the proper verbiage to conform to the state law which allows towns and cities to have such agencies.

Roger Jewett of the state department of commerce and development, appeared before the selectmen Monday night to explain the workings of setting up such an authority and its scope of operations.

Jewett also explained that the GSF Corporation, manufacturer of foam products in Lowell Junction, has signified intent to apply for such financing to expand its Andover operation.

The authority examines the need for financing and the proposed plans of a new or present industrial tenant. The funds are then provided through bonds, which do not effect the town's financial status, according to Jewett. The actual

29 New Jobs Will Be Paid Through Federal Funds Only

Andover will have potentially 29 new positions to fill through federal funds provided to relieve unemployment problems.

Very few, if any, however, will be included in the town's general operating budget for continuance beyond the federal funding, the selectmen were informed by Town Manager J. Maynard Austin Monday night.

The town has been given $94,799 under the CETA funds, which are to be used explicitly for providing employment for such as Vietnam veterans, persons whose unemployment benefits have expired, minority groups, and the like.

Austin explained that such positions as a purchasing agent, clerical help, custodial help, administrative secretary, engineering survey crews, were among the positions contemplated.

There are also to be some painters placed on the payroll through the federal funding.

In response to selectmen's questioning, Austin said that the persons put to work will provide valuable service to the town, but will not be included in general budgeting, with the exception possibly of a purchasing agent, and secretarial aid for the library.

Being specific, the manager informed the selectmen that he felt the town had an obligation to relieve unemployment problems through the federal funding and that there would be useful service performed.

In the area of engineering, survey crews could accelerate the town's annual drainage improvement program.

Painters could be put to good use working at the pumping station and also in the schools, thus possibly saving the town some money in these areas.

As for budget relief -- using the funds to pay for already established positions -- the selectmen were informed that this was not possible due to regulations establishing the funds.

For instance, to apply a salary to an existing position, it would be necessary to lay an employee off for 30 days then rehire him, which is impractical.

Some positions are available in the school department and some in the general town budget considerations. Business Manager Edward Weil is handling the school portion of applying the funds and Assistant Town Manager Sheldon S. Cohen is overseeing the town government operations.

School Board Cuts $5,600

tisements for a new associate superintendent, expenses for interviewing assistant superintendent candidates, and the like.

Business Manager Ed Weil said he simply doubled that figure to $6,000 for the new budget.

The committee, however, cut that in half and left $3,000 in the miscellaneous account for the first go-around.

They also cut $600 from out-of-state travel.

Put on "hold" for the first pass were $1,500 for school committee consultant and $5,000 for the school committee counsel.

The committee also cut $2,000 from $4,300 in requests for public relations by killing "Our Schools" entirely.

Last year they cut back the booklets, which were mailed to taxpayers six times a year, to two issues.

This year "Our Schools" has not so far appeared at all. Griggs said that in the past it sometimes appeared at odd times and irregular intervals. He preferred, he said, to concentrate on other communicative efforts, particularly the new Parent Handbook which was published this summer at a cost of nearly $3,000.

The committee allocated about $1,000 for future revisions.

The question on school committee legal counsel was one of where it should be placed on the budget, not if it should be cut entirely.

It now appears in a special category all its own, but Olesen suggested it be slotted elsewhere, perhaps under "school committee consultant."

Other committeemen, however, said that would be like "hiding" the money.

Olesen had also suggested the committee cut $4,000 for professional negotiators claiming the committee could do their own negotiating, even if other groups had professionals, but he was outvoted.

Selectmen To Check Status

financing is between the manufacturer and the bonding company.

Advantage is that an industry can obtain funds at a lower interest rate through such a procedure. The firm would still pay all taxes as any other industrial tenant in the community.

John DiOrio of the town's industrial development commission, summarizing the usefulness of such an authority, said that it is a good deal for a manufacturer in a tough money market. As for risk involved, DiOrio said that before a firm comes to the town, either to the authority or to the selectmen, he would be pretty generally assured of being able to obtain bonds.

The risk is borne by the bonding firm, he said, thus any application would have sound financial practice behind it.

DeOrio more or less summed up the feeling of the commission when he said that it was his feeling that if such an authority was, in fact, created by town meeting, then it should be appointed.

Chairman Milton Greenberg of the selectmen, said that the board was not interested in creating another town agency, just for the sake of having it on the books.

He felt there had not been a need for such an agency up to now.

As for whether the agency was actually created by a prior town meeting vote, would be checked by town counsel and the town manager, according to Greenberg.

Chairman Herbert Oshan of the industrial development commission, said it was the consensus of his group that such an agency would be helpful in its work.

DiOrio said it could possibly aid in development of small, solid industries for Andover, as well as possibly assist some firms already here, who might wish to expand.

While he felt it was not a major priority item, DiOrio suggested that if it was found that the article approved previously was not in order, then it should be placed before the voters again at this year's town meeting.

It is a tool which can give the commission flexibility, was the consensus.

Chairman Greenberg informed the industrial committee members that it was his opinion that his board would not appoint such an agency if they did not feel it was needed.

But, Greenberg said the board would look into the vote taken at a prior town meeting to determine the legality of authorizing such a board and report back, possibly as early as this coming Monday night.

Olesen Opposes Cost Of Trainee Transit

The annual school committee controversy over providing rides for Lesley College practice teachers erupted once again Tuesday night.

The discussion followed the business office's recommendation that low bidder Vocal Transportation be awarded the contract for busing the college students to West and Sanborn Elementary Schools from February 3 through March 23, at a daily cost of $55, and a total of $3,850.

Committeeman George Olesen said he had never heard of paying for the cost of transporting practice teachers, and said he thought Superintendent Kenneth R. Seifert should seek to have the college itself pick up the fare.

Seifert said he would agree if the busing were for practice teaching alone.

However, he said, the students were not only contributing to the teaching program, but also had teaching aide assignments. He said the busing cost averaged out to about 35 cents an hour for teacher aides who are "almost teachers," and called it a "real bargain."

Committeeman William Lane added that he thought the program gives the town the best return on its dollar of any program.

"If it's such a wonderful program," Olesen said, "why don't we transfer it to Bancroft and another school?" he asked, adding that putting forth the theory that having a lot of student teachers coming in and out of a building causes confusion and could have a negative effect. The program to date has been limited to Sanborn and West.

Vocal was awarded the contract by a 4-1 vote, Olesen opposing, and Williams Transportation was awarded the special transportation route to the Kennedy Memorial and Miller Schools in Boston, at $39 per day.

In other action, the committee appointed Mrs. Karen Feinberg an instructional aide at South Elementary school and named Miss Paula Eichner cheerleader coach at the high school for the winter term at $226.88.

Mrs. Feinberg, who holds a B.S. degree from Northeastern University, has been a first grade teacher in Hooksett, N.H., for three years. Miss Eichner, a graduate of Andover High and Arcadia College, has been substituting in Andover secondary schools.

Another aide appointment was held up while a committee, consisting of School Committeemen William Van N. Washburn and John Lyons and Associate Superintendent Harry Westcott, look into the practice of tutors being paid by parents during the school day and using school facilities. They are to make a policy recommendation the first meeting in February.

The question arose because a former volunteer, seeking appointment to an aide position, had been paid last year for special tutoring services, at the insistence, according to Superintendent Kenneth R. Seifert, of the child's parents, because there was no appropriate program for the child within the system, and in the absence of a policy statement.

Buddy Werner Ski Notes

By Carrie Smotrich
 This coming Sunday, Jan. 12, a combined Andover BWL ski team will initiate the 1975 race season with a meet at the Prospect Hill Ski Area in Waltham. All registered BWL racers are expected to report at Prospect Hill by 8 o'clock on the 12th to allow sufficient time to study the course. The race will start promptly at 9 o'clock.

In preparation for our first meet, racers are once more reminded to have their bindings carefully checked. Also, those of you who have been skiing on what little snow is available should carefully check bottoms for gouges and have them repaired prior to the race.

In the event that snow conditions do not allow us to hold the race at Waltham, all registered racers will be notified prior to the Sunday meet.

On the 15th of January representatives of the Hart Ski Company will demonstrate race techniques at the Bradford Ski Area. Through the efforts of coach Ted Sutton members of the Hart group will work with Andover racers. This is an important opportunity for all BWL racers and we strongly recommend that as many of you as can be at Bradford on the 15th of January. There will be two sessions: one starting at 6 p.m. and the second starting at 7 p.m.

Warrior Icemen In Strong Bid

By Rick Harrison

Andover High gave the two strongest hockey teams in the Merrimack Valley League all they could handle in the first period of a brace of games last week, but when the final siren sounded the Golden Warriors were on the short end of both scores.

Billerica, undefeated through 28 straight league games and winners of 23 in a row, found themselves in a 1-1 deadlock after 12 minutes before breaking loose to send AHS reeling to a 6-1 setback.

Austin Prep, also undefeated this year, trailed the Warriors 2-1 before getting untracked for a relatively easy 7-2 victory.

The double dose of defeat left Coach Dick Valle's crew with a 1-3-1 overall ledger, and the locals tried to bounce back yesterday afternoon against Chelmsford (3-2) at the Billerica Forum.

Next in line is a 4:10 p.m. clash with Lawrence Central this Saturday at the Forum, and that one precedes a big showdown struggle at 6 o'clock between co-leaders Billerica and Austin.

Hillmann Again

Andover Capt. Steve Hillmann got AHS off-and-running against Billerica with an unassisted powerplay goal at 3:15 of the opening session.

Hillmann, notching his seventh seasonal red-lighter, controlled the puck in the neutral zone and moved down the left boards.

Deep in the Indians' end he cut across in front of goalie Art Jean, and with a defenseman riding him all the way Steve poked the disc home.

The 1-0 edge held up under constant Billerica pressure until 9:36, when Mark Jenkins circled out of the left corner and slammed a 15-foot wrist shot past Warriors' goalie Brian Moore to the short side.

Not Much Doubt

Billerica left little doubt in anyone's mind that it would keep the lengthy win streak intact, drilling home three second period goals and adding two more in the final canto.

Carlton Quinton, Bob Johansen and Brian Russell found the range in the middle frame, followed by Brian Bullock and Russell again in the finale.

The disciplined Billerica team, which battled into the finals of the Eastern Mass. Division II Tournament last year with essentially the same team it has this winter, kept forechecking tenaciously and limited Andover to just even shots on net in the game.

The Indians' bulge by periods was 10-3, 11-2 and 9-2 for a final spread of 30-7.

Moore did a commendable job in goal with 24 saves, while Jean was required to make only six stops after Hillmann's opening goal.

Last Loss To Andover

It was Andover, incidentally, that was the last league team to beat Billerica.

The Warriors' tournament team of two years ago turned the trick, blanking the mighty Indians 3-0 behind Dave Hubbell's shutout goaltending back on Jan. 31, 1973.

Austin Unwinds

Austin Prep jumped ahead of the Warriors 1-0 at 3:25 of the first stanza on a goal by Dan Shannon, but five minutes later Andover assumed a 2-1 edge after rapid-fire scores by Brian Flannery and John Shaw.

Flannery's first of the season was a shorthanded beauty at 8:32. Linemate Harry Collins set it up with his hustle and a good feed. Flannery tied the game with a short wrist shot that eluded Cougars' goalie Steve Vasaturo.

Senior center Shaw made it 2-1 a mere 23 seconds later, taking a Flannery pass and beating Vasaturo from in tight for his first goal of 1974-75.

That's how it stood until 0:35 of the second canto, when Tony Santullo beat Brian Moore with the tying marker from 15 feet out.

Santullo followed three minutes later with a shorthanded goal, and The Prep sextet was on top to stay.

Sophomore Tom Carr upped the cushion to 4-2 by the close of the period, and in the third session Austin lamplighters were notched by football quarterback Chuck Gaudet and All-Star junior defenseman Charlie Antetomaso.

Austin so dominated the final 15-minute period that Andover failed to get a clear shot on goal.

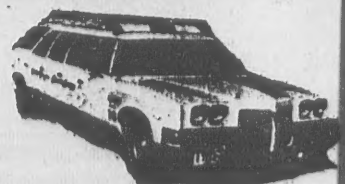

The victors maintained 13-5, 12-5 and 10-0 shooting advantages by period to close with a wide 35-10 edge.

After one period, the score was 0-0, but early in the second period North Reading scored. Right winger Jim Oliver converted on Matt McInerney's rebound at the 59 second mark, the Hornets first shot of the second period. Wally Roberts made it 2-0 for North Reading midway through the second period on assists from Pete Barrasso and Bill Canavan.

Then, North Andover started. Danny Noone, who had a three point performance got one goal back at the 14:08 mark on an assist from Mark Esposito. He scored on a wrist shot from the top of the face-off circle to

N.A. then went to work in the final period. At the 11:35 mark, Dave Diminico scored on a wrist shot to tie it with an assist from Noone. Esposito then shot home the game winner at 14:23 with assists from Matt Caruso and Noone.

Pete Caron, the senior all-star net minder, played another fine game for the Knights as he made 21 saves.

The Knight hockey team played last Wednesday night in a 6:30 face-off against Newburyport at Merrimack College. They were trying to win their fourth straight, and six out of seven games. Saturday afternoon the Knights travel to Amesbury for a 3:30 face-off against Masconomet. On Wednesday night they will play Lynnfield in a very important game. That face-off will be at 6 p.m. at Merrimack College.

Monday night's activities at the East Junior High gym, as the division resumed play after its traditional holiday layoff.

Only six of the scheduled nine games were staged, however, because water leaks in the roof dampened one court and forced postponement of three tilts. These games are currently slated to be made up a week from tonight at the West Elementary school gym.

St. Augustine A, St. Robert's B and St. Augustine G are the current tri-leaders with identical 4-0 records. One-half game back following postponement of their contests are four-time defending champ West Parish A, St. Robert's C and Baptist, all at 3-0.

The only team dropped from the unbeaten list Monday night was St. Augustine E, which absorbed a pounding at the hands of Ballard Vale United.

Yuska, Kelley Combine
St. Augustine G had little trouble cruising to its fourth straight win, racing past St. Augustine F by a 35-10 score.

Big Mike Yuska paced the charge with 15 points, including 9 in the final quarter, while consistent Ted Kelley pumped in 10 markers.

Mike Curley swished 7 points, Tim Corkery had a first period bucket and Dick Kelley hit a fourth stanza free throw for the victors.

St. Augustine F was guided by Dave Carignan with 4 points, including a brace of early foul shots that got his team off to a 2-0 lead. Chipping in with solo baskets were John Atanasoff, Steve Farrington and Jack Horan.

Tom Haskard, John Kramer and Dave Barker were other 'F' team leaders.

Press Works

St. Robert's B employed an effective full-court press to stifle West Parish B, 18-10, at the small Doherty School gym.

The winners broke open a one-point game in the third quarter, and really wrapped it up during the finale behind Jeff Nicastro's hustle and sharpshooting.

Nicastro closed with a game-high 8 points, while Ken Saliba canned 6 in the second half and Gregg Praetz hooped 4 markers.

Other key people for St. Robert's were Howie Lebowitz, Tom Daley and Wally Hines.

West B center Tim Plass was the main answering fire with 7 points. Scott Nolin converted a pair of fourth period charity tosses, and Jeff Saulnier had a solo free throw in the second period.

Other standouts in a losing cause were Tom McDonald, Paul and Mark Newton, Scott Belbin, Steve Johnson, Alex deConstant, Jim Kimball, Scott Elliott and Chris Saulnier.

Everyone Contributes

St. Augustine A got all nine of its players into the scoring act against South, storming to a 32-14 victory in the process.

Jerry Fox was the lone hoopster in double figures for the 'A' quintet with 10 points. Steve Smith flipped in 6 markers and Tim Bolduc 4.

Dave Gusmini popped in 3 points while Fred Foote, Jeff Fleming, Pat Paris and Dave Fluet managed 2 apiece. Rounding out the attack with a third period free throw was Tom Fox.

On the opposite side of the ledger, Bruce Barnhill shared game-high honors with 10 points and Robbie Serbagi pocketed 4 markers. Other South sparkplugs were Pete Zlatev and Dave Oshan.

Heidt Explodes

Lefty Bob Heidt exploded for 15 points to power previously winless Ballard Vale United to stunning 33-4 romp over St. Augustine E.

Heidt found the range in every quarter, but really cut loose in the finale with 8 points.

Carolyn Darling was next in line with 7 markers, Todd McLeod flipped in 4 and solo field goals were contributed by Jay McLeod and Russ Bird.

Countering with single buckets for St. Augustine E were Dave Robinson and Kevin Delaney.

Chipping in with fine floor games in a losing cause were Tom Galvin, Tim Holt and Mike Gardner.

Valiant Comeback

Trailing 12-2 entering the final quarter, the Christ Church Crusaders erupted for eight points but fell short in a 14-10 loss to St. Augustine D.

The winners displayed fine balance as Pat O'Connor, Roger Starmand and E.J. Perry tossed through 4 points each.

Ed Trainor added a third quarter bucket for the 'D' crew, while additional standouts were Mike White, Mike O'Connor and Brian Busta.

The Crusaders' comeback was spearheaded by Mark Rogers, who stuffed six of his game-high 8 points in the fourth period. Ken Taylor also added a last quarter two-pointer for Christ Church.

Helping out defensively for the losers were Dave Menard, Dave Marsden, Mark Frost, Russ Lewis, Todd Lockwood, Paul Brinkman and John Rogers.

No Breathing Room

When the final horn sounded, St. Robert's D was left with little breathing room in its 19-17 squeaker over St. Augustine C.

The game was close from opening tap to the end, with neither team able to develop much of a lead.

Ben Bram keyed the St. Robert's triumph by netting 10 points. Ted Liszewski dunked 4 markers, Vinnie Keegan and Marty Melia fired through 2 apiece, and Frank Byrne pocketed a key third quarter charity toss.

Richie Sambuco topped the St. Augustine C point parade with 9, followed by Jay DiIorio with 4 markers, Chris Bedell 2 and Jim Torissi 2 points.

Other stalwarts were Chris Reichart, Steve Paradis and Glenn Reichart.

Next Week

Key battles this coming Monday evening are St. Robert's B (4-0) against Baptist (3-0), and St. Robert's C (3-0) vs. St. Augustine B (2-1).

The makeup games at West Elementary next Thursday feature West Parish A vs. St. Robert's C at 6:15 p.m., St. Augustine B vs. Baptist at 6:45 and St. Robert's A vs. Free Church at 7:15 o'clock.

West Parish Team In Split On Weekend

By Rick Harrison

The West Parish intermediate basketball team split a pair of out-of-town games last weekend, setting the club's overall seasonal record at 15-2.

Last Saturday night West dropped a tough 35-33 overtime decision to St. Augustine's of Lawrence at Merrimack College. The game was the preliminary to the Merrimack College-Fairleigh Dickinson contest, which was a part of the school's holiday festival of sports events.

West Parish came back the following afternoon to swamp the Lawrence Jewish Community Center crew, 52-4, in J.C.C. Biddy Basketball League action.

The latter victory boosted West's league record to a perfect 7-0, and it has opened a three-game lead over runner-up St. Anne's.

OT Defeat

West Parish moved out to a 12-7 first quarter lead against St. Augustine's, as Steve Doherty tossed in 6 points and Chris Doherty 4 to guide the attack.

The Andover club increased its edge to 24-13 by halftime, paced in the second stanza by Bob Heidt's 4 markers and solo buckets from Bob Meier, Bruce Belbin, Mike Sherman and Chris Doherty.

appeared to have the game well in hand at intermission.

However, the fired-up St. Augustine's squad exploded for an 11-2 scoring advantage over ice-cold West in the third quarter, cutting its deficit to 26-24 entering the final quarter.

Jeff Saulnier's basket was the only offense for West in the third stanza.

The rivals traded buckets over the final 7-minute period, but near the end West needed a 20-foot baseline connection by Steve Doherty and a rebound bucket by Ted Kelley to pull even at 33-33 and force overtime.

West also had the ball with two seconds left in regulation but the in-bounds pass was stolen by St. Augustine's.

The overtime tap was won by West Parish, which proceeded to move the ball around in hopes of freeing someone underneath. The strategy worked but the shot was missed.

St. Augustine's pulled down the rebound, sprung Billy Goterch loose and he sunk what proved to be the winning basket with 14 seconds to play.

West was unable to get away a clean shot before the final buzzer.

Steve Doherty finished as high man for West with 8 points, while Chris Doherty had 6. Bruce Belbin and Bob Heidt added 4 apiece, Bob Meier 3 and single baskets came from Tim Plass, Mike Sherman, Ted Kelley and Jeff Saulnier.

Mike McDonald, Glen Johnson and Scott Nolin also played well.

Mark Fisher topped St. Augustine with 9 points, while Norm Lavoie flipped in eight, Bill Goterch 7 and Dave Belanger 6 points.

West Parish enjoyed a 16-15 edge in field goals, but went 1-for-4 from the free throw line while St. Augustine's was 5-for-10 at the charity stripe.

J.C.C. Romp

West fell behind 2-0 in the opening moments of the J.C.C. league game, but then poured it on and coasted to the 52-4 victory.

The scoring was well-spaced as West managed 10 points in the first quarter, 12 in the second, 16 in the third and 14 in the finale.

Seven players cracked the point column for West, and three of them were in double figures.

Chris Doherty led the way with 14, followed by Bob Heidt with 12 and Mike Sherman 10 points.

Ted Kelley hooped 6, Dick Kelley and Tim Plass 4 apiece and Glen Johnson notched a pair.

Tom Beaumier contributed a fine all-around effort with a number of rebounds and steals.

Bob Heidt, Chris Doherty and Mike Sherman had some pretty assists as the West passing game was again sharp.

West Parish has now outscored its J.C.C. opponents, 187-27.

Chris Doherty heads the league scoring parade with 76 points, followed by Ted Kelley with 35, Tim Plass 26 and Mike Sherman 18.

Next week West battles St.

Theresa's in the J.C.C., and future out-of-town games are planned with Wilmington and Westford.

Portsmouth, 6-1
Veteran center Len Foote burned the nets for a three-goal "hat trick," sparking the romp over Portsmouth at the Phillips Academy rink.

"We looked better than in our first game (3-2 win over Masconomet)," noted Neal. "Our passing was especially sharp, but we lacked defensive coordination between the forwards and defensemen."

Foote opened the scoring just 47 seconds after the first faceoff with an unassisted red-lighter. Carrying the puck out from the Andover zone, Len blasted a rising slapshot into the top right-hand corner. The 60-foot blue-line special was Foote's first seasonal goal.

Foote increased the spread to 2-0 at 4:08 of the second session, collaborating with linemate Dave Farrell on the score. The pair exchanged passes in the Andover zone, with Foote carrying from his own blue-line to within 20 feet of the Portsmouth cage before unloading.

Dave Farrell then pulled off a shorthanded goal all by himself. "Farrell took the puck at center ice and swung around a defenseman into their zone," explained Neal. "He moved across the goalmouth, pulling the goalie out, then put the puck to his forehead and scored. It was a very pretty goal."

Defenseman Brian Bresnahan's first goal jumped the lead to 4-0 at 1:32 of the finale.

Winger Mike Anderson passed from the corner to Bresnahan at the point, and he zinged a 55-footer through a screen.

Four minutes later Foote pocketed a powerplay goal for a 5-0 bulge, completing the club's first hat trick of the season.

Just 14 seconds after a Portsmouth player was banished to the penalty box, Foote took a pass from Farrell and snapped off a 40-foot shot that skidded past the visitors' netminder.

Len Driscoll closed out the locals' attack 18 seconds later, polishing off a crisp passing play that saw linemates Paul Farnham and Don St. Jean set Lennie up alone in front.

Andover goalie Todd Bateson lost his shutout at 7:11 of the third canto, as Portsmouth took advantage of a Driscoll penalty to pocket a powerplay goal from in tight.

"Bateson played an exceptionally fine game in goal, making two or three big saves right at the start of the game and several others throughout," lauded Neal. "We also received some fine penalty-killing from Farrell and Farnham, while defensemen Bresnahan, (Mike) Derby and (Jeff) Hudgins turned in good efforts," concluded the coach.

Durham, 4-1

Two goals apiece by Len Driscoll and Dave Farrell powered Andover to a 4-1 triumph over visiting Durham before a large Friday night crowd at the Phillips rink.

"It was a very strong game all around for us, and a very physical game by both teams (10 penalties)," related Neal.

"Good back-checking by our wings accounted for the fact that Durham had very few good scoring chances, and rarely had a second shot."

"All three lines were very effective, giving us balance all night. It was by far the best of our first three games," stated Neal.

Driscoll got the ball rolling at 9:44 of the opening canto, shortly after two unsuccessful Andover powerplays.

Brian Bresnahan whipped a pass to Don St. Jean in the corner, and he fed Driscoll at the goalmouth for a tip shot into the right corner of the Durham cage.

Farrell jacked the lead to 2-0 with a powerplay lamplighter at 3:18 of the middle session.

Rear-guard Mike Derby started it with a pass to Foote at center ice. Len hit Farrell in the Durham zone, and he moved on the goalie before firing a 12-footer to the short side.

Durham ruined goalie Dave Hill's shutout bid at 5:42, jamming home a rebound after Dave made a difficult save during a 2-on-1 breakaway.

Len Driscoll got that one back 20 seconds later, pumping home his second goal of this game and fourth in three games.

Paul Farnham took the mid-ice faceoff after the Durham goal, passed to St. Jean who spotted Driscoll in the slot once again.

Several minutes later Andover found itself skating at a two-man disadvantage, but adept penalty-killing by Farnham, Bresnahan and Derby kept Durham at bay.

Dave Farrell's fourth goal of the campaign closed the offense at 2:59 of the finale. Len Foote carried through the neutral zone, and skimmed a stick-to-stick pass to Farrell breaking over the blue line.

Dave simply walked in unmolested from the left side for a 10-footer.

Dave Hill worked the first two periods in goal, and Todd Bateson then blanked Durham in the finale.

"There was an especially strong defensive effort by the forward line of Steve Curtis (center), Mike Anderson (left wing) and John Sagaser (right wing)," offered Neal. "And once again the penalty-killing by Farrell, Foote, Farnham, Bresnahan and Derby was a big factor."

"The team has come a long way and our passing has improved 100 per cent," added Assistant Coach Doug Grange.

"We're improving every game," agreed Assistant Paul McNamara. "We still have things to work on, but we look a lot better than in our first game."

Brunswick, 3-3

Andover hit the road for the first time last Sunday, and it took a brace of third period goals by Paul Farnham and one from Len Driscoll to keep Andover undefeated with the 3-3 deadlock against Brunswick at the Bowdoin College rink.

"After a slow start that included no shots on goal in the first period, we got going midway through the second period and carried the play in the third period and much of a six-minute overtime, revealed Neal.

"We were very disorganized in the early part of the game, but the team did well to come back when down by two goals (3-1) with only 3:11 to play."

Andover skated off three penalties without damage in the first stanza, but Brunswick took a 1-0 edge at 8:44 on a five-foot rebound shot what eluded screened-out goalie Dave Hill.

The home team made it 2-0 after two periods, connecting during a 2-on-1 breakaway at 1:31 of the middle frame.

Driscoll started the third period comeback with his fifth goal at 0:13.

"After Farnham and St. Jean had combined for shots on goal, Driscoll jumped on a loose puck to the right of the net, brought it in front and drove it home," recalled Neal.

Brunswick retaliated at 8:49 from a mad scramble at the crease, making it 3-1 with just 3:11 left in regulation.

Farnham Comes Through Exactly one minute later, at 9:49, Paul Farnham picked the perfect time to register his first seasonal red-lighter.

Paul broke up a Brunswick clearing pass, closed to within seven feet and put the puck into the top part of the net just under the cross-bar," explained Neal.

Some 52 seconds later, with 1:18 to play, Farnham took a pass from Dave Farrell 10 feet out and again hit the upper netting to tie it.

The overtime was scoreless and without incident, but Andover did have the edge.

"In the last minute Farnham nearly scored again. He whacked a bouncing puck in mid-air and it hit the post," concluded Neal.

The coach praised the work of complete-game goalie Dave Hill, Farnham, Driscoll, Farrell, Bresnahan and Derby.

Schedule

The busy Bantam 'A' schedule continued last night with a game against Melrose at the Lynn MDC rink.

This Saturday evening Andover hosts Hanover, N.H. for a 6 p.m. clash at Phillips Academy, and Sunday at 5 p.m. the locals journey to Brown University to battle the Providence, R.I. Bantams.

School Observes Birthday

Observing A Birthday

Rev. Jon Martin, assistant pastor at St. Robert Bellarmine Church in West Andover led the children and parents of St. Robert's Country Day School in a candle service, celebrating the 5th birthday of the school on Jan. 3.

The children, dressed in hats representing candles, sang "This Little Light of Mine" accompanied by Father Martin and their teachers, Mrs. Paul Convey on guitar, Mrs. Werner Anderson, Mrs. Martin Dispensa and Mrs. Harold Keegan, director. They were gathered around the Resurrection - "New Life" candle from which the parents also received a light for their candles from one another. Father Martin explained the significance of the candles - "unlit they have no use, but when lighted they shed their light and warmth. He compared all present to a candle - people are like the wax and the wick, when lit, represents our hearts, shedding warmth and friendship to one another as when we smile or do for others.

The children sang Happy Birthday to Baby Jesus and then the teachers, director and Mrs. John Myntinen, chairman of the parents board, lit the five candles on the huge birthday cake.

After the ceremony, all adjourned downstairs for refreshments. Mrs. Harold Keegan, director, presented William Walsh, the honorary grandfather of St. Robert's with a retirement gift (a St. Robert's sweatshirt) from the children. Bill will be greatly missed by children and teachers alike. As custodian for the group, he was also confidant, helper, playmate, candy-hider and true friend to all. Mr. Walsh started St. Robert's scholarship fund in 1971, to be presented to a physically handicapped child from another socio-economic environment.

Registrations for St. Robert's next school term will be accepted in February. Anyone interested should contact Mrs. Thomas Perivolotis, registrar, 90 Lincoln Road, Tewksbury, for information and registration forms.

In 'Training'

While some may question a statement here that we really have nothing against continued train service to Andover, let us initially emphasize the fact that our principal objection is to the management of the agency providing the service.

Likewise, our position is one of protection of the public against being pawns in a game in which taxpayers wind up in a difficult squeeze.

Such would appear to be the case as evidenced by recent communications between MBTA officials which provide the commuter service and trustees of the property of the B and M Corporation debtor in reorganization.

Recently the MBTA reported that it could no longer handle the commuter rail service due to continuing deficits and a lack of return on its investment.

It offered to buy the B. and M. lines for $26 million, and failing that would instead withdraw from commuter rail service and introduce buses to those areas now served by rail.

In response, the B. and M. trustees in a letter dated Dec. 23, state that the MBTA "has never made an investment in the B. and M. lines and the amounts paid to the railroad have been paid on an "unavoidable cost" basis to reimburse the railroad for its operating losses in continuing commuter rail service.

The reorganization trustees claim they have continued the rail service which has produced no return whatsoever in the railroad's invested capital.

The trustees also take issue with the MBTA claim of paying $250,000 for right of way repairs. Railroad officials, state they have not as yet received the money, and also point out that the funds are only a fair share of proper maintenance of the commuter lines.

As for the cost of purchasing the railroad, which the MBTA proposed at a cost of $26 million, the trustees note that their appraisers have set a property value of $66.5 million net salvage value as of Dec. 31, 1973, without placing any value on the 84 Budd Cars.

With the Budd Cars included, the B. and M. officials contend the value of its properties within the Route 495 periphery is $92 million.

With such communications going between the B. and M. and the MBTA officials, is it any wonder, that the average person is confused and perplexed by the commuter train operation.

What makes matters even more confusing and difficult to assess is the fact that MBTA has said that a decision must be made in March on its offer to purchase the railroad property.

Another decision is due in a New England community in March -- Andover -- on the continuance of train service. That decision is guided by what is termed pure democracy -- in town meeting.

With such million dollar differences of opinion at the top in the agencies providing the service, is it any wonder that interested local taxpayers are wary of offering up a few thousand?

Common Sense

Somewhere in the distant past apparently, people lost a particular quality often referred to as common sense.

The loss is best exemplified in periods of inclement weather, such as on Tuesday when a substantial snowfall hit the area.

Weather forecasting in this section of the country, is a precarious trade at best, but people, forgetting the uncertainty of New England weather express confidence in meteorologists and proceed toward daily tasks undaunted by the fact that the rain predicted was now piling up in the form of snow.

The reaction of course is immediate.

School officials should have cancelled classes, the municipal crews should have been plowing the streets at the first fallen flake, and when schools were released early, the administrators should have had sense enough to keep the children in school for the remainder of the day.

First, for the school issue.

Administrators are constantly in the position of making a wrong decision no matter what they do in the eyes of some.

There have been times when we have been editorially critical of decisions to hold classes in view of storm conditions early in the morning.

Such was not the case this week, when forecasters gave indications the storm would not be as intense as it proved to be.

When it was decided to let classes out early, criticism followed from some, questioning why the early dismissal.

We can sympathize somewhat with superintendents of schools under such circumstances and wonder aloud if such criticism does not warrant a belief that the public schools often are looked upon primarily as publicly supported baby sitting systems.

The key decision to be made under such storm conditions can easily be made at home. Using a little common sense, if a parent feels the conditions warrant, the child should be kept at home.

As for the municipal crews, we feel they do the best job they can.

They are attacking storm conditions as early as possible and taking into consideration traffic conditions, get the roads open and passable quickly.

But there are motorists who proceed on the highway with no snow tires or winter equipment, get stuck, tie up traffic and impede snow removal operations.

It all comes down to one prime ingredient necessary to be a resident of New England -- use of common sense. Proper application can spare one of a lot of worry and woe this time of year.

Off The Top Of The Desk

Time was when New Year's Day was considered to be a slow news day, with the usual football fare occupying principal attention throughout the day.

Not this year, however. The day and night long recreational presentations were interrupted by first the announcement to keep South Boston High schools closed and later in the day, by the jury decision in the Watergate case.

In years past it was difficult to come up with any major news happenings on the holiday.

We trust that all the cliches will be put to rest late Sunday with the completion of the Super Bowl game.

This is an official end to the season, although there will be a few straggling gridiron tilts to follow.

Maybe one of these years all the buildup for the annual clash to determine football supremacy, will be worth the boring verbiage which precedes the game itself.

All evening homemaking classes at the Essex Agricultural and Technical Institute will begin for the second semester during the week of February 3, instead of the week of January 13 as originally announced. Those enrolled in the fall semester should attend the evening their class meets beginning in February.

There are still a few openings in the following 10-week classes to begin in February: cake decorating on Monday and Tuesday evenings; advanced cake decorating on Wednesday evening for those who have already completed the basic course and would like to do more advanced work; pillows and slipcovers on Wednesday evenings; and draperies and bedspreads on Thursday evenings.

Those wishing to register for any of these courses or obtain further information should call Cindy Lobb at the Institute in Danvers.

The 146th Annual Camellia Show, sponsored by the Massachusetts Horticultural Society, will be held Thursday and Friday, Jan. 30 and 31, at Horticultural Hall in Boston.

Amateur and professional growers from all over New England will exhibit a wide variety of beautiful prize plants and unique specimen blossoms.

A special feature of this year's show will be demonstrations of Ikebana, from the Japanese words "Living Pond Flowers," every hour on Thursday, by the members of the Boston Chapter 17 of Ikebana International. Using camellias and other flowers, experts will create several intricate and symbolic floral arrangements representing the various schools of Ikebana.

On Friday, at 11:30 a.m., Mabel Maria Herweg, noted authority on Ikebana and past president of the Boston Chapter, will give a lecture in the society's library on the "Symbolism of Ikebana," using examples of the different schools to illustrate her talk. There is no charge for the lecture, but anyone interested in attending, should register by calling the library.

The library will also feature camellia prints from the society's Rare Book Collection, and Ikebana International will also supply the library with continuous floral arrangements displayed against a backdrop of 15th - 17th century Japanese screens.

Show hours are Jan. 30: 2 to 9 p.m.; and Jan. 31: 10 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Michael Pavone, the church's organist, will preside at the console while Ben Cogen, professor of Physics at Merrimack College will solo on the violin. Selections will include festive and meditative compositions by Bach, Durufle, Purvis, Vierne, Gaul, Cornelius, Mozart and Franck. The public is invited, and there is no admission charged for the concert series.

Mr. Pavone was graduated from Westminster Choir College where he majored in voice and minored in organ. He is presently pursuing part-time graduate study in music education at Westminster located in Princeton, New Jersey. Organ studies were had under Donald Ingram of St. Paul's Cathedral, Buffalo, New York, George Markey, of Madison Avenue Presbyterian Church, Mary Krimmel of First Presbyterian Church, Princeton, and Dr. Alec Wyton of the Cathedral of St. John the Divine. This past summer Mr. Pavone participated in a choral study tour of English Cathedral Choirs and played on several English organs, including that at Canterbury Cathedral. ## Thomas To Conduct Symphony

Michael Tilson Thomas appears as guest conductor of the Boston Symphony Orchestra on Jan. 31 and Feb. 1 in a program which includes seldom heard works of Dvorak, Liszt, Chopin and Wagner. The concerts, which begin on Friday at 2 p.m. and Saturday at 8:30 p.m., feature Ilana Vered as soloist in two virtuoso piano works, Liszt's arrangement for piano and orchestra of Schubert's "Wanderer" Fantasy and Chopin's "Andante spianato and Grande Polonaise." The Boston Boy Choir performs Wagner's rarely heard "Children's Catechism," and completing the program are Wagner's "Siegfried Idyll" and music from Dvorak's "Legends."

The concerts mark the second guest appearance this season of Thomas, who is Music Director of the Buffalo Philharmonic and a former Principal Guest Conductor of the Boston Symphony. Tel Aviv-born Ilana Vered has played previously with both the Boston Symphony and Boston Pops Orchestras, most recently as soloist in the latter orchestra's first Carnegie Hall concert, which took place last October. The Boston Boy Choir, which appears on the orchestra's recently issued recording of Berlioz' "Damnation of Faust," has performed on many occasions with the Boston Symphony.

The program begins with four of Dvorak's "Legends," Op. 59, a set of ten character pieces which, like the same composer's popular "Slavonic Dances," were originally conceived as piano duets. The orchestra last performed music from this little known work in 1902, when Wilhelm Gericke conducted five numbers from the set. Though often performed as a piano solo, Chopin's "Andante spianato and Grande Polonaise" is seldom given in its original piano-orchestra version. Miss Vered's performance of this virtuoso showpiece marks the first time since 1882 that the work has appeared on a Boston Symphony program.

Liszt's concerto-like arrangement of Schubert's "Wanderer" Fantasy is likewise an unusual concert item, one that presents an interesting confrontation between a composer who bridged the classical and romantic eras and a later composer who represented the romantic movement at its peak. Wagner's "Siegfried Idyll" and "Children's Catechism" were both written as birthday tributes to the composer's wife, Cosima.

Auction Planning Underway

Auction Preparations

It's time to start planning for the big tenth annual Channel 2 Auction, which will run this year from May 30 to June 7, 1975. To get into gear for the tenth birthday auction, the annual Go Getter Area Chairmen meeting was held recently from 10 a.m. to noon in the Cabot Cahner's Conference Room at WGBH-TV. Area chairmen are responsible for organizing volunteers in their areas to solicit donations of goods and services for the Channel 2 Auction in 1975.

The more than 50 Area Chairmen from two states who attended the meeting were addressed by Auction Manager Hamilton Osgood and Go Getter Chairman Barbara Larson who familiarized new attendees with the accomplishments of last year's auction and outlined organizational policies and volunteer training. Connie LeMaitre, community relations chairman, Diane Davis, publicity director and Elspeth Pruitt, volunteer personnel director, also addressed the area chairmen.

Last year's auction raised close to $600,000 which helped to defray the daily expenses of running the station. The Channel 2 Auction is almost exclusively a volunteer effort. In 1974, over 4,000 volunteers helped, 6,000 donors gave items to sell and 200 additional people contributed everything from paper and printing to food for the volunteers. The use of a generator was even donated when the power lines suddenly failed.

Anyone interested in joining the Channel 2 Auction effort this year should call (617) 868-3800 and ask for the Auction Office.

Senior Citizens Classes
To Be Offered In March

A new set of classes designed specifically for older residents (60 and above), will be offered as part of the Recreation / Community Schools 1975 Winter Program.

Four courses which are similar to those held in the evening will be given during the day in order to give those older citizens who prefer not to take classes in the evening, an opportunity to take part in the Recreation / Community Schools Program. They will also begin at a later date than the regular program, hopefully to avoid much of the hardship of winter travel. These four classes will begin the week of March 3. There will be no charge for any of them though some supplies may be required.

Marilyn Pratt, who teaches Quilting in the evening, will offer this same course for older citizens on Tuesdays from 1:30 - 3 p.m. This class will be held in the East Junior High cafeteria. Photography which will include an exploration of the basic functions of the camera, light meter and professional enlarger, will be taught by David Skelly. Mr. Skelly teaches Photo 1 and 2 in the evening program, advises the Photo Club and does free-lance photography in Andover. The course will be held on Wednesdays from 10 - 11:30 a.m. at Chestnut Court. The importance of keeping up with exercises and staying in shape at any age cannot be stressed enough. Harriet Ahouse will help older citizens accomplish this in her Easy Body Movements class. This will be held at Christ Church on Thursdays from 10 - 11 a.m. and is open to men and women.

Marilyn Stella, newly elected president of the Andover Artists Guild teaches various adult and youth programs for the Department. She will offer a course in Studio Art on Thursdays from 1:30 - 3 p.m. in the East Junior High cafeteria. The course will include two dimensional and three dimensional art. Students will work with still life, the human figure and abstract art on paper and in sculpture.

For further information contact the Recreation / Community Schools Department.

For Those Of Us Who Are Older

The reason for the cancellation of the swimming program Monday night, Jan. 6, was a defective filter. The program will resume next Monday night, Jan. 13 at 6 p.m. For those of you who would like to participate, you need only present yourself at the Voke School pool with bathing suit, cap and towel. The water is heated and delicious to swim in or just paddle around in. You need not know how to swim to enjoy the pool. Dressing room facilities are warm and comfortable. Why not join the group next Monday night?

A special day away is planned for Tuesday, Jan. 28, with a bus trip to the New England Center in New Hampshire, for a buffet luncheon. A surprise stop is also planned. Total cost for the luncheon and transportation is $6.10. Sign up now at The Haven.

The next session of the mini-clinic will be held at The Haven Tuesday, Jan. 21 from 2 to 4 p.m. Specific appointment times are assigned, so it is important to let The Haven know that you would like an appointment. You may make an appointment by telephoning The Haven at 475-3968.

No need to feel any January blues when there is The Haven to visit! Come by any day between 10 and 4 and enjoy the company of your friends and neighbors. Located at 25 Barnard Street, just behind the Town Hall, it is run by the town for Andover residents over 60.

Owl Walk

Did you know that owls are courting in the middle of the winter? January finds these interesting birds breeding and nesting in hollow trees through wooded areas where their eggs will hatch in early spring. The Ipswich River Audubon Club is sponsoring an owl walk on Friday, Jan. 17 at 7 p.m. at the Massachusetts Audubon Society's Ipswich River Wildlife Sanctuary on Perkins Row in Topsfield to look for nesting sites and listen for calls. If the weather is good, they may see the owls themselves.

766 Seminar

Parents and others in the community interested in the student with special needs are invited to "Conversations 766," an all-day seminar from 9:30 to 4:30 p.m. on Saturday, Jan. 11, sponsored by North Shore Community College. It will be held at Vittori Rocci Post, Brimbal Ave., Beverly, Exit 19 off Rte. 128.

Scooping A Storm

The surprise snow storm on Monday put area highway department crews to work getting roads in shape for travel. The sudden snowfall, which was supposed to be rain, according to the forecasters, left a good six to eight inches in this area and brought out scoops, plows and sanding equipment. Some "fender-bender" accidents were reported but no injuries of a serious nature.

Street, is that persons are now going up Lowell Street turning on side streets and coming back down Bellevue Road to enter the plant.

This is causing not only traffic problems on the streets involved, but annoyance and a hazard to the neighborhoods.

Chief William Knightly of the Raytheon security force appeared before the selectmen Monday night explaining the problems and the threat of accident due to the back up of traffic on Route 93.

The selectmen are taking the time to examine the vote they took last spring which effected the ban on the left turn, before making any further decision on the matter.

In the meantime, Town Manager J. Maynard Austin has asked the members of the board to personally view the traffic conditions in the area in anticipation of making their decision next Monday.

Peanut shells are being recycled by the peanut industry. The combustible and absorbent hulls are ground up and mixed with wax to make fireplace logs that burn colorfully for three hours with little smoke and no odor.
